
AS THE WOOD TURNS

June 2007 Issue 120

Safe Box - Illusion of Security

Displayed at the Yankee Woodturning Symposium Instant Gallery by David Belser. The box is made of mahogany and ebony and features a single lock mechanism which was designed from seeing a bank vault mechanism displayed inside the vault door. Locking pins retract when the right combination is used to allow the lid to be removed.

Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm at Hank Cahill's Dust Bowl

President's Report and General Business

Hank introduced a guest, Bill George, who has become a member.

A Hartville Tool Woodworking catalog, with discounts was received and made available to members.

A sign up sheet for the Cohasset Art Festival June 15, 16 and 17 was available for those members who will be exhibiting or volunteering to man our booth or demonstrate.

Richard Friberg mentioned and discussed the summer classes to be held at NBSS.

Hank has sent our $550 Grant usage letter to AAW as required to receive payment.

Treasurer Wally Kemp was not at meeting but Hank reported $1044 in treasury.

Lenny the Librarian reported there are still some missing items not returned to library.

The Brolly Bird project is still in limbo.

A report on the status of the upcoming Yankee Woodturning Symposium was given. At the time of our meeting 40-50 more attendees are needed. MSSW has the most members from local groups signed up to attend.

Andy Osborne said that Fox25 in an early morning show about the town of Norwood showed his work in a local art gallery.

Andy mentioned a card to Ken from Fuller Craft Museum extending thanks for his woodturning expertise. Also thanks to Hank for the shop tour with Ken demonstrating.
