Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm at Hank Cahill's Dust Bowl

President's Report and General Business

Guests present were E.T. Howe from Kent in England and Warren Smith from Millis, MA.

Hank received AAW sign up literature and catalogs from Craft Supplies and Woodworker Supply. The CNEW newsletter was also received and passed on to members.

Mal submitted Newsletter expenses for four months to Wally in the amount of $175.98.

A request for November refreshments was made and Paul O'Neill volunteered.

The binder with articles of interest to Woodturners was passed around.

Treasurer Wally Kemp reported $2155 in treasury with $570 received for pedestal sales and $240 still due.

Wally has 3-4 gallons of raw Linseed Oil available for free.

Farm Day is scheduled for November 1st. Ernie's treadle lathe will not be available. Wally requested help for transporting lathes and demonstrating.

Librarian Ron Robertson has some videos for sale at $2 each. There are many good videos available. He has made 40 DVD backup copies from our VHS tapes. He requested $100 to cover Library costs.

NBSS is having an open house Friday November 7th at the Arlington Campus and Saturday at Main Campus.

Members picked up pieces and pedestals from our JCC exhibit. Wally is missing a piece. There were 27 pedestals made and Mike will bring in the three that were left after sales. Mike reported the JCC exhibit was their Best Show even though there was little advertising.

Mike Gans brought in two used Chop Saws which were offered for sale to members & a wood swap was held.

Mike Trucchi, our new Webmaster, has received an Ok to proceed from Charlie Rosen who has been our Webmaster for many years. Many thanks to Charlie for his contributions in setting up and running our first site.

Mike has registered our new site as MSSWT.ORG with GoDaddy.com as Host for 3 years at $240. The site is under construction and Mike is requesting members supply images of their works for the Gallery.

Members were requested to furnish collaborative pieces for Show and Tell.

Hand's On at Hank's, Saturday, November 22nd. 10am. New members are welcome!

Instructor, Rich Friberg, looks on as one of his students demonstrates running a strip of molding at the North Bennet Street School's open house Saturday, November 8th in the North End of Boston.

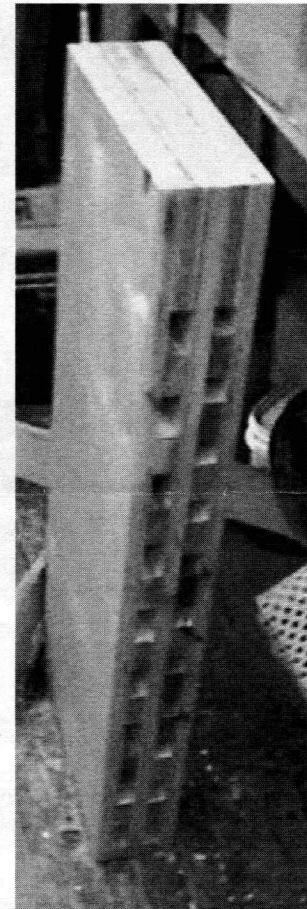

Audubon Farm Day demonstrating turners - Wally Kemp, Bill Dooley and Ron Robertson
Quote from Bill: "It is a good thing someone wandered by, our arms were too short to take the picture."

More Show & Tell

Nigel's cut pieces and ring being clamped for Column Base

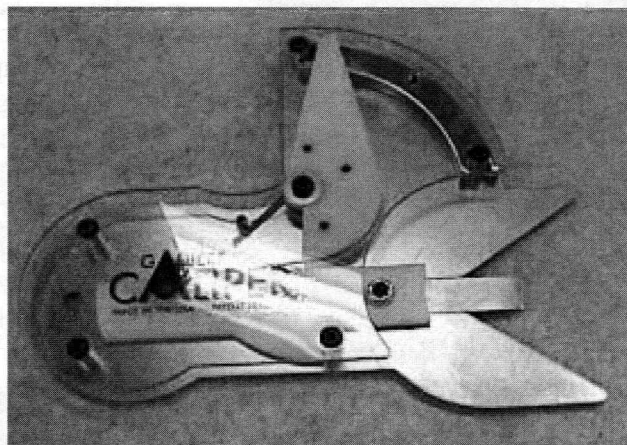

Don Diedrich's large vertical turning tool rack

Wally Kemp's MultiAxis Human Forms

Richard Friberg brought in a Galbert Caliper to demonstrate. Two units were donated to NBSS.
