MINUTES

These are the minutes of the monthly meeting held September 24th, 2019 at Hank's Dust Bowl, 409 Washington Street, Abington

- Steve began by announcing that the club has sold almost all of the stools made at various events and that members should make some more. Members should also make tops to take to upcoming shows. case in point, the Cape Cod Woodturners keep a box full of tops to hand out at shows.
- October 18th is the reception at the Arnold Arboretum in Jamaica Plain from 5-7:00 pm
- October 19th and 20th are the days of the show at the Arnold Arboretum in Jamaica Plain. Hours are 10-5:00pm both days. Items in display cases can be picked up November 26/27th.

- October 19th is Farm Day at the Noah Webster estate in Marshfield hosted by Audubon. We will sell and turn from 10:00 AM until 4:00 PM. Setup is 9:00 AM
- October 26th the Cape Cod Woodturners will show a video from 1-4:00 PM in the afternoon by Lyle Jamison. Cost is $15 to attend for non-members.
- November ninth the AAW will host a demo at Rockler's store in Porter Square Cambridge. Steve said we need two members to turn pens. The event is from 9:30 - 4:30. Fred Johnson volunteered with Steve for this. There will be four classes.
- Lenny Mandeville announced that the James Library show will take place on Saturday December 7th in Norwell center. He is looking for fellow exhibitors. See Lenny if you are interested.

- Steve reminded us that Ian has bubble wrap bags available for members to transport turned items to shows with. They are $5- for a package of 10.
- John Duggan was away so Steve gave the Treasurer's report. The club has $2856 on account.
- ◆ Lenny Langevin visited Scotland with his wife. He visited David Wilcox's shop who is a member of Scottish Woodturning. Their club has nine lathes in a former school. They traded turned objects. Len received a "wobble goblet" and Len gave David three miniature turnings. Members can use one of the
- lathes when they wish as the club is open around the clock. It costs them two pounds for three hours. Membership is twenty pounds a year.
- Joe Centorino reported several of us exhibited at the first "Mann House & Garden Family Farm Day" at the Mann House in Scituate on September 21st. We turned tops and sold a few items. It was a well attended show.
- Ken Lindgren said he still has a large amount of exotic wood for sale from the estate of a deceased woodturner available to members. If interested, see Ken.

MEETING DEMO

Turn a Self Winding Top by Ian Manley

Ian told us turning tops is a good exercise for beginning turners. He began with a piece of wood 2 - 21/2" in diameter and rounded it on the lathe between centers. To achieve this he used a 3/8" bowl gouge. He said that a 1/4" stem on a top is a good diameter for kids to grasp in turning it to spin. Also for kids, there should be no sharp edges.

For the self winding model, Ian told us that he first saw one turned by Ernie Grimes a former long time club member. Ernie liked to use a steel pin embedded in the tip.

Ian had a piece of wood 4" long by 3" in diameter. He rounded it and cut a tenon on each end and placed one end in a chuck with the topside of the top facing out. He then drilled a 1/4" hole in that end and turned it around on the lathe to turn and shape the bottom, sections to 3/4"; 3/4" and 1 1/2". These are the distances for the shape of each area working toward the upper end which is 1 1/2". You can mark each increment with a pencil. Ian used a bedan to shape each area before parting the finished piece off with a skew.

Next turn the ring piece. Take a piece 1 1/2" by 1 1/2" and drill holes in it, a 9/32" hole for the stem and a 3/4" hole in the middle. You can do several and cut each one off into discs.

Now turn the pin. Use 3/4" stock between centers. Round it using a roughing gouge or a skew. Mark 3/4" on the tailstock end. Now turn a bead (for a knob to grasp it by) on the headstock end and make sure the shaft fits the ring. Drill a 1/16" hole on the pin for the string. Ian recommends using leather or sailmaker's thread (about a 18-20" piece).

will slide easily inside the ring of the top.

shaped on the lathe.
