Christmas Gift Swap Items on Display

Minutes

These are the minutes of the November club meeting held on November 23rd, 2021

- ◆ Our January meeting is scheduled at 7 PM Tuesday Jan 25th at "Hank's Dustbowl" (409 Washington Street, Abington). Please remember to observe the parking restrictions and park either on the street or behind the building as the driveway spaces are reserved for the landlords and tenants.
- ◆ The meeting will also be streamed on Zoom (please refer to the link below) for the convenience of our out-of-state members, those unable or unwilling to travel or for members that may be uncomfortable meeting in person. Masking is optional and if you are not feeling up-to-par then please stay home and join us on Zoom.
- ◆ The feedback issues we have experienced over the past few meetings is due to having the audio level on the TVs at the Dustbowl turned up so that mem-

Christmas Party

December 21, 2012 @ the DustBowl

We had 20 people in attendance as well as three members who could not attend but did participate in the gift swap. There was plenty of delicious food including sandwiches, stew, several pasta dishes, savory pastry and multiple delicious desserts! Unfortunately I did not capture photos of all the food contributions but thank you to all who went above and beyond to add to the festivities. The most ornate and decadent dessert was a triple chocolate very ornately decorated layer cake with fudge and cherry filling brought by Wayne and Michelle Sargo and artfully created by their daughter Meghan, truly a delicious work of art!

Christmas Gift Swap

It was very rewarding to see many newer members participate in the gift swap sharing their work with other club members and trying to guess who turned what piece! The gift swap order was by random drawing of ticket numbers and went like this:

Pictured here and in the surrounding photos, is the collection of gifts to be swapped. On display for all to see.

Wayne Sargo received this beautifully and delicately crafted Christmas ornament created by Molly Johnson

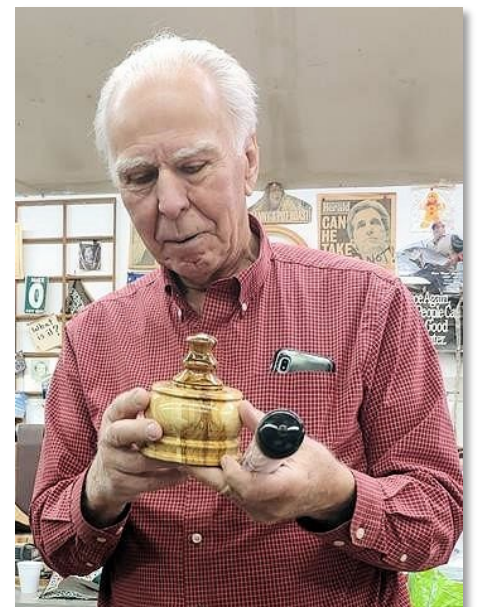

Joe subbed in for Jeff Keller who received this very unique bowl created from 100% fully caffinated coffee grounds and turned by none other than Ken Lindgren!

Molly Johnson shows off (with her best Vana White impression) a beautifully turned and finished Paduk toothpick holder designed and turned by Jeff Keller

John Bagnell pulled this Honey Locust bowl turned by Wayne Sargo.

Ken drew a Maple ink pot complete with a quill fashioned from a locally sourced Turkey-feather

Bill Dooley received this well turned and finished natural edge Cherry bowl crafted by John Bagnell

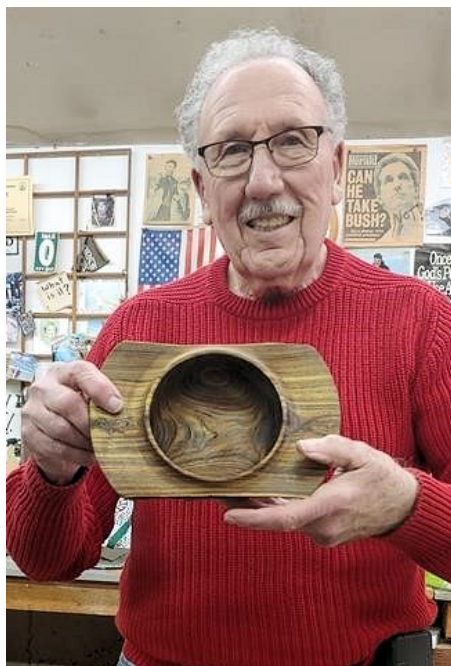

Melissa Fantasia received a cone/biscuit/cookie cutter complete with a package of scone mix and instructions on how to turn a cookie cutter. This was turned by Charlie McCarthy (even though it does not have a stem!)

Joe Centorino got this nicely turned end-grain Osage Orange vase crafted by Kevin Mulligan

Fred Johnson (with an assist from Charlie) shows off a set of Spalted Maple candle holders (with candles) that were artfully turned by Sonny Tice

Steve Wiseman received this beautiful sumac winged bowl turned by Bob Courchesne

subbing in for Kevin Mulligan pulled this unique and skillfully turned wing bowl turned by Bill Dooley

Joe subbing in for Bob Courchesne pulled this figured Maple box with a Cherry lid turned by Steve Wiseman.

Charlie holds a lidded box with a resin rim. The rim was embedded with "gold" nuggets. The box was turned by Melissa Fantasia.

Sonny Tice shows us an assortment of Christmas ornaments with unique display stand turned and fashioned by Fred Johnson
