Minutes

These are the minutes of the January club meeting held on January 25, 2021

- ◆ Joe announced that the club has a box of miscellaneous wood available for members consisting of wenge, rosewood, and also some wood for a wood swap that Horace Lukens brought.
- ◆ Joe said the club has added 11 new members in 2021. Also, Dues are now due for 2022. You may pay online or by snail mail to Charlie McCarthy. Still $50.00. If you have paid your dues and haven't received a new membership card, please see Kevin.
- ◆ Demo Day will take place Saturday April 23rd. There will be four demonstrations beginning at 8:30 or 9:00 am. Lunch will be provided. Demonstrators include Wayne Miller, Steve Wiseman, Jim Silva and Mike Brady. There will be raffles and prizes during the day.
- ◆ The South Shore Arts Festival is June 17th through the 19th.
- ◆ The Arnold Arboretum will hold its 125th anniversary in October.
- ◆ If you took Arboretum wood from out back, please turn it to give back to them.
- ◆ We need members to step up and commit to giving future demonstrations otherwise we will have to do away with them.
- ◆ Charlie reported the club has $3874 on account. $2024 of it is on hand, the rest is for scholarships.
- ◆ Lenny announced the club Tips & Tricks, a new book from the AAW.

Pictured here is a small hollow form turned by Pablo Gazmuri. He applied texturing, pierced it and applied blue dye using an airbrush. See Show & Tell for additional pieces.

- ◆ Ron announced the club store is well stocked. Morse taper cleaners are being made for the #2 Morse taper only. They are $10. There are also some Fibonacci

Show & Tell

Pictured below are Show and Tell photos from Mike Waddell on his lathe and his custom built dust hood

Show & Tell

Pictured here and to the right are two small hollow forms from the lathe of Pablo. He used texturing, dyed them, pierced them and applied blue dye using an airbrush. He finished them by spraying each with lacquer.

Bob Courchesne showed us this honey locust bowl. It measures 3" by 7 1/4".

Pictured here, we see an oak platter with some of the bark left on. Also turned by Bob Courchesne

Bob turned this spalted silver maple bowl which he finished with walnut oil.

Bob turned this cherry piece leaving the bark on both sides for an artistic effect.

3 pieces turned from sumac by Bob Courchesne and finished with walnut oil.

Pictured here and to the right we have two views of an interesting bowl of spalted maple turned by Jim Briggs.

The spalted Maple bowl measures 7" deep with a 10" circumference.

Pictured here, "Brother Danny", 5" by 8" which was cored from Arnold, both names from the lead actors in the movie, "Twins"

Andy turned this Maple container dyed red inside, 4" by 7".

Wayne turned and constructed this hanging segmented group of Christmas bells. He turned their handles separately. He used holly and birch veneers on the bells. The ring is 12" in diameter, the bells are 4" high, the candy canes are 3" and 6". Nice piece.

Peter turned this disc mounted on its stand. It features a spalted natural edge. He drilled the hole using a Forstner bit.
